

STADA IT SOLUTIONS Company was established in September 2013 as an IT shared services centre for STADA group worldwide. As a member of the Hemofarm Group, it is located in Serbia and employs over 90 experts in the areas of SAP, Microsoft, application development and IT operations.

With international project portfolio and shared services concept, it represents an in-house IT partner for the company group members focused on providing business solutions and building the IT knowledge inside the group. With professionals ready to deliver and support business growth and transformation of the group, STADA IT Solutions has already completed projects in more than 15 countries of the STADA world during its first two years of work.

The company plays an important role in global savings, IT standardization inside the group and represents an important investment in the future, an investment in knowledge.